

Please allow XM radio to continue its' full programming schedule, including Instant Traffic and Weather. My husband and I have just made the trip from California to Minnesota and found the service INVALUABLE! No fading, losing stations, scouting the dial for current information. We feel this service is very important to travellers and would hate to see it limited in any way.
Janet and Richard Huston